ABOUT OUR FOOD

What you put into your body is important, and we agree! Therefore, we produce as much of the food on our menu as we can. Because we do this, we can add or subtract items as we are making your meal. We hand cut our fries, we slice our deli meats, we bake, we brine, we take the time to hand craft our food. Because of this, if you have any food allergies at all, it is imperative that you let your server know when you order! Allergens such as dairy, soy, gluten, mushrooms, etc. can be in many prepared meals and we need to know to be able to clean surfaces and prepare your meal allergen free!
